Maoist Street Code

Maoism in the First World is not Maoism in the Third World.

The only way to Hold High the Great Red Banner of Marxism-Leninism-Maoism in the First World is to build up the First World Lumpenproletariat. The Labor Aristocracy is the enemy of Revolution. It is the First World Lumpenproletariat that must be revolutionized, recognizing that the base of Revolution can only be found in the Third World. The First World Working Class is ruled by the Labor Aristocracy which connects itself to the Middle Class. The First World Working Class is usually Labor Aristocracy. Even when the First World Working Class is separate from the Labor Aristocracy there is no lasting Proletariat. The original Black Panther Party as they were in the 1960s and 1970s is the first prototype to Marxism-Leninism-Maoism. With a study of the original Black Panther Party correct analysis can be comprehended and advanced.

Mao Zedong Thought is not Marxism-Leninism-Maoism.

Mao Zedong Thought was the Marxism-Leninism of China during the time of Mao Zedong. The original Black Panther Party as they were in the 1960s and 1970s applied Marxism-Leninism-Mao Zedong Thought to their own conditions suffering under the brutality of the Police. The Black Panthers took advantage of the contradictions in the Capitalist Republic more commonly known as the United States of America. What the Black Panthers did was legal deterrence. Marxism-Leninism-Maoism emerged as the new revolutionary path to be upheld by the Revolutionary Internationalist Movement and the evidence was the Shining Path led by Manuel Rubén Abimael Guzmán Reynoso. The Revolutionary Internationalist Movement was destroyed and Abimael Guzmán has become a reactionary. This does not stop Marxism-Leninism-Maoism.

People's War in the Third World and Legal deterrence in the First World.

The Third World must carry out People's War, this is evident. Advancements in People's War in both Theory and Practice can only be discovered by the Third World Maoists. What the First World Maoists have to maintain is legal deterrence, this legal deterrence can only be done by establishing a Common Law for Revolutionaries in the First World.

Maoist Common Law; Street Code and International Stance.

Marxism-Leninism-Maoism can only be grasped by understanding the fundamentals of the enemy. The enemy of the Proletariat is the enemy of all Revolutionaries. The Patriot Act signed by the President George W. Bush is a contingency plan to put down Revolution and a furthering continuation of COINTELPRO. Maoists in the First World well versed in the correct line of revolutionary science for our time requires that we know that what determines revolution in the First World is the Lumpenproletariat. The First World Lumpenproletariat lost Class Consciousness due to the efforts of the Counterintelligence Program. We must reawaken the Lumpenproletariat to Class Struggle. This is easier said than done. The obligation of the First World Revolutionary is the obligation to sabotage the Bourgeois First World. The First World Revolutionary has another obligation, an obligation to the Proletarian Third World. Maoist Common Street Law dictates as it must; an infringement against Anarchists is an infringement on Maoists. Maoist Common Street Law dictates as it must; an infringement against Marxist-Leninist-Maoists is an infringement on Anarchists. We unite with the Anarchists on what we agree with, we struggle with the Anarchists on what we disagree with. Marxism-Leninism is outdated, however Marxist-Leninists hold relevance in the Post-Soviet Eastern Bloc. Any infringement on our confused Marxist-Leninist Comrades is an infringement on Marxist-Leninist-Maoists. Attacks and infringements on Maoists damage the work of Leninists, thus it can not be tolerated. We must struggle against the narcotics flooding the Urban Streets of the First World. We must struggle against racism because it destroys Class Struggle. We must protect Anarchists when they are under the attack of Fascists. We must protect the poor because we can never win them over if we show apathy. Yet we must never give into to counter-revolutionary appeals to emotion.

Serve the People, Combat Liberalism, Defend Correct Ideas, Reject Incorrect Ideas.

Marxism-Leninism-Maoism is the highest stage of Marxism and this Maoist Street Code is the Constitution of Maoism in the First World.

It is correct to rebel against reactionaries.

It is correct to show solidarity for Anarchists when they need it.

It is our obligation to struggle with Anarchists when we see incorrect views propagated by them.

It is even correct and necessary to see the best Anarchists as Comrades.

We must establish Rebel Journalism with a serious stance against Imperialism, Colonialism and Fascism.

We must develop self-reliance and self-defense programs, we must form rebelling cooperatives that do not exploit the Third World.

We must create eco-friendly plans to ensure the survival of the Planet or we will all perish.

We must lift up the Native Americans and help them in their struggle against Colonialism.

The Native Americans hold the key to saving the environment.

We must stand with radicals who combat Fascism, it is counter-revolutionary to ignore the dangerous incoherent Fascist Reactionaries and their political movements. We must build Antifa cells with Anarchists or we may all very well wake up in Prison Camps. We beat the Fascists before, we can beat them again.

The Maoist Street Code is the foundation to building the necessary United Fronts against the enemies of Revolution.
